

Suffering From Painful Hemorrhoids? Try These Ideas

You have hemorrhoids, apply any brand of petroleum jelly directly on the affected area. This will help to ease the passing of any hard stools, and avoid causing further injury. Apply the jelly right before you feel the need to use the bathroom, and do this every time until your hemorrhoid is fully healed.

When You Use the Restroom, Don't Push Too Hard

This will exacerbate your hemorrhoids; instead, try strolling around to see if it makes you feel like using the bathroom. If that does not work, try engaging in light exercise in order to get your bowels moving. No matter what, usually do not force yourself.

- Great tip for your painful hemorrhoids will be to try using aloe vera on it.
- This is a great plant that has a wonderful soothing feeling and will also tame your irritation.
- It could benefit you to have an aloe vera plant on hand in case you ever need one.

They Sell Creams Over the Counter that Will Help Numbing the Pain of Hemorrhoids

You need to make sure that you do not use these for longer than one week, and if you feel you need more, check with your doctor first. These types of creams will not cure your hemorrhoids, even though they will provide temporary relief.

- Standing for long periods of time without moving can cause hemorrhoids to form.
- The same problem can occur if you are seated for hours on end and not getting up for a break.
- Try alternating between sitting and position if you are not able to get up and walk around during the day.
